Philippians 3:17-4:1

1. Describe in some detail the life that Paul was calling the Philippians to imitate.

2. What is so important about this kind of life?

3. Do you see this kind of life as being as valuable as did Paul? Tell why you do value this life or why you have trouble embracing this life.

4. How easy or difficult is it for you to view your life now as a citizen of heaven? What helps you do so and what obstacles do you face that hinder seeing your life in this way?

5. If someone were to ask you if suffering humiliation at the hands of the world was worth your future vindication and glory what would be your response?
